U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
PATRICIA GRAY, CLERK

RE: Case No. BK-S-06-10725-LBR

I object to the relief requested in the above referenced case. In Exhibit A, under the heading Proposed Treatment/Comments Objection heading, it states that the claim is for commission by broker who signed up lenders for non-performing loans. This is completely untrue. I was hired in December of 2000 and my responsibility with USA Capital was to raise money from Institutional clients such as Banks, Insurance Companies, Pension Funds and Broker/Dealers. I also worked with outside counsel on preparing offering documents for purposed product. This was a marketing, not sales position. I was paid a base of $132,000. (Enclosed are 1099's for 2005 and 2006). I was paid bi-monthly and I can supply copies of check stubs if you wish. I was paid on a 1099 as I was a California resident and USA wanted it that way. (Copy of Business Card enclosed) I filed this claim as the original bankruptcy filing indicated I was entitled to $5,587.50. It did not reflect the 30 days of termination compensation as per my employment agreement. Hence my claim was for $16,587.50 with $10,000 being priority status. Doesn't the Court or the multitude of attorneys have access to USA personnel files? Obviously not as the attorneys do not have a clue to what my position was.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael P. Mollo
